

Amit has more than 24 years of industry experience in Infrastructure Consulting, Sustainability Advisory and Government Advisory across sectors such as Transportation, Tourism, Vision Development, e-Governance, Large Area Development, Environmental Engineering. Amit's major areas of expertise include PPP, strategy development, business modelling, feasibility assessments, risk management, bid process management, program management, project monitoring, project monitoring, and capacity building. Amit has worked with the Central, State and Local Government bodies in India & USA.

Amit is the Founder and Director of O'Turk Advisory Services Pvt. Ltd., a Sustainability and Infrastructure boutique consulting firm. Amit was previously a Partner with KPMG in India and has previously worked with several renowned organisations like EY, PwC, IL&FS, and The Shaw Group. Amit holds a Post Graduation in Management from IIM Calcutta, a Masters in Environmental Sciences from University of Massachusetts, Lowell, and a Bachelors in Chemical Engineering from Pune University. Amit is an avid traveller and photographer.