Work Experience

Mr. EBONG served in the Records Unit and was involved in Records Administration of College of Education, Uyo, Nigeria (March 1983 - October 1983). He continued in Records Administration of the University of Cross River State, UNICROSS, Uyo, (which he was instrumental to setting up a standard automated Records Unit) from October 1993 to October 1991, when it transformed to the University of Uyo, Uyo, Nigeria from October 1991 to June 1998, when he voluntarily retired into a private living. While in service of the University, Mr. EBONG served in several Committees and Panels for the maintenance of rectitude within the system. He became a Private structural Developer (vocational builder) after his voluntary retirement, till date.

This took him to the nooks and crannies of Akwa Ibom State, Nigeria which exposed him to the stark neglect, abandonment, hunger and poverty of the locales, hence his involvement in rural mobilization and development till date. This burden led Mr. EBONG to form and operate a community-based Organization – ODUDU IBIBIO Organization, and later aspired to the responsibility of leading the State as the Governor in the 2023 political elections – ostensibly to better the lots of his people. He is currently the Managing Director (MD) of AGRIVIZION TECH INVESTMENT LTD, ATIL, the fledgling, articulated agro-based global Company.

Mr. EBONG though skilled in some Computer applications, is still very versatile to learn and improve on existing skills in the constantly changing and dynamic world of technology.
